HARVARD COLLEGE LIBRARY
JAN 16 1915
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

JOURNAL OF EDUCATION

NEW ENGLAND AND NATIONAL

VOL. LXXXI { Number 2 / Whole No. 2012 | BOSTON, JANUARY 14, 1915 | WEEKLY { $2.50 per Year / Single Copies, 5 Cents

BEST BOOKS FOR SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING CLASSES

Fritz and Eldridge's Expert Typewriting

Textbook (85 cents) and Pad of Business Forms (20 cents.)

A large octavo volume of 180 pages, based on the touch system of typewriting. It contains, among the many other topics treated in its forty chapters, keyboard drills, the use of which saves both the teacher and students much work; word phrase and figure drills, full-page letters, forms of address, business terms and abbreviations, with complete instruction in filing, card systems, billing, tabulation, corporation and legal forms, trial transcripts, complete specifications and auditors' reports; twenty-five speed articles; and a complete day's work for a typewriter operator.

Eldridge's Dictation Exercises

65 cents

In Six Editions—Benn Pitman, Isaac Pitman, Gregg, Graham, Munson, and Edition Without Shorthand Outlines.

The vocabulary includes 5,000 words. The dictation matter contains over 100,000 words, accurately counted and indicated in the text. The book furnishes every desirable kind of dictation; it gives information regarding business methods and shorthand which will be of great value to the stenographer; it shows what qualifications well-known business and professional men consider essential to a stenographer's success. The outer part of each page provides space for anexercise, which is to be written and torn out and handed tothe teacher for correction.

AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY

New York Cincinnati Chicago

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY

have published during the past few years the following

BASAL TEXTBOOKS FOR THE ELEMENTARY GRADES

The Riverside Readers (Edited by James H. Van Sickle, Wilhelmina Seegmiller, and Frances Jenkins)

The New Webster-Cooley Course in English

The Woods Hutchinson Health Series

The Bailey-Manly Spelling Book

Tappan's Elementary History of Our Country

Thwaites and Kendall's History of the United States

Guitteau's Preparing for Citizenship

Announcement will soon be made of a

NEW SERIES OF ARITHMETICS

that will have unique interest for superintendents and teachers

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY

BOSTON NEW YORK CHICAGO

The Adoption of

The Silver-Burdett Arithmetics

BY THE

State of Indiana

For Exclusive Basal Use
For Five Years

is convincing evidence of the superior merits of the books

These are:

Omission of non-essentials
Up-to-date, practical problems
Thorough drill on fundamentals
Logical development

Let us tell you about these books.

Silver, Burdett & Company

Boston New York Chicago San Francisco

Foreigners' Guide To English

By AZNIV BESHGETURIAN
Teacher of English in the Boston Evening Schools

FOREIGNERS' GUIDE TO ENGLISH provides conversation, reading, language and phonics work for evening classes of beginners in English, sufficient for one school year

Special Features of the Book

The large amount of reading matter (more than 4,000 sentences)
The simplicity of sentence structure, not only in the first lessons, but throughout the book
The thorough teaching of usages and constructions especially difficult for beginners in English
The drill on a vocabulary which includes both the words essential to the construction of sentences in English and the words needed in the ordinary affairs of life
The direct conversational tone of the reading matter
Two hundred and sixty-one illustrations of objects and actions
The application of many lessons to work and industry

From the first lessons, which are based on the object and action method, the student is interested and encouraged to continue, because he feels that he is covering ground and is getting a grasp of English

Bound in cloth. Illustrated. xiv+268 pages
List price, 60c; mailing price, 72c.

WORLD BOOK COMPANY
Yonkers-on-Hudson, New York
Chicago Atlanta Dallas Manila

The Beginnings of Our Educational System

Early New England Schools

By Walter Herbert Small, A. M.

The author, whose death removed from New England one of its ablest educators, devoted much of his life to a study of the early educational conditions of this part of the country. The work, now first published, begins with a study of the New England grammar school up to 1700, and includes chapters devoted to such subjects as "The Ancient Schoolmaster," "Schoolmasters' Salaries," "Heating and the School Wood Tax," "The Early Education of Girls," and "Enforcement of Laws Against Illiteracy." Mr. George H. Martin, formerly a member of the Massachusetts State Board of Education, says that this book is "a unique and valuable contribution to the history of education and to the history of New England." It reveals close and accurate study of the whole subject, and most excellently fills an important gap in our historical studies. Those who are making a study of New England historical matters, as well as those who are interested in purely educational subjects, will find this work valuable - - $2.00 net.

GINN AND COMPANY, Publishers

Trade Department

29 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.